

Advancing Offshore Transmission

Event

May 14, 2024 | 1 minute read

Joshua Robichaud will speak at the 4th Annual Transmission Infrastructure US Conference in New York. This year's conference is dedicated to advancing the development of much-needed transmission infrastructure in the United States by highlighting policy and regulations, exploring opportunities, showcasing technologies, and presenting solutions. Joshua will present on a panel titled "Advancing Offshore Transmission." The panel will address the need for an OSW grid infrastructure to meet clean energy goals, regulatory, permitting, and environmental challenges in building offshore connections, innovative solutions for offshore grids, and more.
