On the eve of the opening ceremony for the Paris 2024 Olympics, Bracewell managing partner Greg Bopp discussed with The Texas Lawbook the firm's launch in Paris with an 11-lawyer energy and infrastructure team.

"We've considered the Paris market over the past couple years. We wanted to find the right team to complement our successful energy practices in London and Dubai. This team is one of largest and most highly regarded energy and infrastructure teams in the Paris market," said Bopp.

The Paris outpost became the Houston-based firm's third international office. The team is led by partners Anne Lapierre, Arnaud Bélisaire and Simon Cudennec.
