The National Law Journal recently highlighted the addition of partner Andrew Shaw, who joined the firm's Policy Resolution Group in DC.

Shaw represents organizations before Congress, federal agencies, and other entities on environmental issues, renewable energy, climate policy, among other matters.

"Energy and climate policies are changing rapidly. Andrew's expertise in public policy related to energy and the environment aligns seamlessly with our government relations and strategic communications practices," E. Dee Martin, co-chair of Bracewell's Policy Resolution Group along with Scott H. Segal, said in a firm statement.
