Awards & Rankings

October 13, 2023 | 1 minute read | Houston | Washington, DC

HOUSTON and WASHINGTON, DC – Bracewell LLP partner Brad Y. Chin has been named to the IAM Strategy 300: The World's Leading IP Strategists, an annual listing that recognizes individuals “who lead the way in the development and implementation of strategies that enable intellectual property owners to maximize the value of their portfolios.”

Chin, who chairs Bracewell's intellectual property practice, is a registered patent lawyer who counsels and represents clients concentrated in the energy and high-tech industries. He advises clients on patent and trademark procurement and enforcement matters, licensing and technology transfers, invalidity, non-infringement, freedom-to-operate opinions, post-grant review proceedings, government contracting compliance and corporate due diligence.

Published by Law Business Research, IAM is a global business media platform focusing on intellectual property value, providing news, analysis and rankings primarily for IP corporate leaders.
