

WTR 1000 2025 Recognizes Texas Trademark Practice, Constance Rhebergen

Awards & Rankings

March 04, 2025 | 1 minute read | Austin | Houston

HOUSTON – Bracewell LLP’s Texas trademark practice and Houston partner Constance Gall Rhebergen have been recognized in World Trademark Review’s 2025 WTR 1000 directory, which identifies the leading professionals and firms that are deemed outstanding at obtaining, protecting, managing and enforcing trademarks.

Rhebergen – chair of Bracewell’s technology and intellectual property section – counsels numerous clients with respect to intellectual property strategies, including developing strategies and managing intellectual asset portfolios. She also analyzes intellectual property clearances for new products, processes and company launches.

“A smart choice for all, Bracewell’s trademark practice is renowned for its practical insights and stellar enforcement and maintenance strategies,” noted World Trademark Review. “As a global strategy adviser, [Rhebergen] is celebrated for her ability to swiftly pinpoint clients’ needs and craft meticulous strategies to achieve their goals.”

Published by Law Business Research, WTR 1000 focuses exclusively on trademark practices and identifies the top trademark firms in key jurisdictions around the globe.

Related People

Constance Gall Rhebergen

Partner

HOUSTON

+1.713.221.3306

constance.rhebergen@bracewell.com

Related Industries

Energy

Technology

Related Practices

Trademark & Copyrights

Intellectual Property