

Corporate Governance & Compliance

Bracewell's corporate team advises public and private companies on compliance with corporate and securities laws, including issues related to corporate governance and duties of directors and officers, SEC reporting, environmental, social and governance (ESG) strategies and disclosures, state corporate partnership and limited liability company law matters, securities laws, and regulations and stock exchange rules.

Areas of Focus

Corporate & Securities