

INSIGHTS

Webinar: Disability Law Developments 2018 – What Employers Need to Know

December 6, 2018

By: James H. Kizziar Jr.

Speakers: Jim Kizziar and Chris Jaynes

Info: Please join labor and employment lawyers Jim Kizziar and Chris Jaynes for a complimentary webinar to address four significant developments in disability law. The webinar will analyze recent court decisions and provide practical advice on how employers may:

- Establish-and modify-essential job functions to make them litigation-proof
- Best address developments and trends in reasonable accommodations
- Appropriately respond to requests for service and comfort animals in the workplace
- Identify and manage pitfalls and prevent breakdowns in the interactive process with employees and applicants

Jim and Chris will provide insights in how recent court and administrative decisions in these developing areas impact employers and shape legal compliance and best practices. Time will be made available for question and answer at the end of the presentation.