

US Representative Veronica Escobar (D-TX-16): Reflecting on the SOTU & Forecasting House Dem Policy Priorities

Podcast | Madam Policy

February 09, 2023 | 1 minute read

In a special post-State of the Union episode, hosts Dee Martin and Yasmin Nelson are once again joined by powerful force for constituents and voice for House Dems, Rep. Veronica Escobar (D-TX-16). As the newly elected Co-Chair for the House Democratic Policy and Communications Committee, Congresswoman Escobar is guiding the messaging for policy priorities of the Democratic Caucus in the 118th Congress. And on that note, how will Dems message the implementation of the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law and the Inflation Reduction Act? Tune in to find out!

Rep. Escobar also talks about her top takeaways from President Biden's SOTU address, immigration reform, paid sick leave and FMLA, and more. Want to know what advice this powerhouse Congresswoman would give to her future self? Listen in!
