

Law360's Trials Editorial Advisory Board

Law360 (April 3, 2019, 4:50 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2019 Trials Editorial Advisory Board.

The purpose of the editorial advisory board is to get feedback on Law360's coverage and gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of Law360's 2019 Trials Editorial Advisory Board are:

Kimberly Branscome, Kirkland & Ellis LLP

Kirkland & Ellis partner Kimberly Branscome is a trial lawyer with a particular emphasis in mass tort and products liability litigation. Her experience includes environmental and toxic tort, product and professional liability and securities matters. She has served as trial counsel in a number of high-profile cases.

Bill Carmody, Susman Godfrey LLP

Bill Carmody, a partner at Susman Godfrey, is a go-to trial lawyer for high-stakes litigation. Last year alone, he was trial counsel for Uber in its epic battle against Google/Waymo, tried to verdict a case for General Electric resulting in a judgment valued at over $160M and obtained hundreds of millions in the Libor litigation.

Collin J. Cox, Yetter Coleman LLP

Collin Cox is a business trial lawyer who represents plaintiffs and defendants in high-stakes commercial cases. He has been a lead trial lawyer in computer software trade secrets cases, several actions related to the Bernard L. Madoff fraud, royalty disputes, patent litigation and other business crisis situations.

Brooke Cucinella, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP

Brooke Cucinella, a litigation partner at Simpson Thacher, focuses on government and internal investigations and high-profile disputes. Cucinella previously served as an assistant U.S. attorney in the Southern District of New York, where she was a senior member of the Securities and Commodities Fraud Task Force and tried a number of high-profile cases.

David M. Fine, King & Spalding LLP

David M. Fine is a partner in King & Spalding's trial and global disputes practice. He represents accounting firms, automobile manufacturers and other clients in complex civil litigation and regulatory proceedings. Fine has tried cases to complete defense verdicts for two of the largest accounting firms.

Paula Hinton, Winston & Strawn LLP

Paula Hinton is a go-to trial lawyer in high-stakes litigation. She has been named to Top 250 Women in Litigation by Benchmark and has been recognized by Chambers USA for her skills in commercial litigation and mass tort litigation/class actions. She received the Texas Lawyer Lifetime Achievement award in 2018.

David Long-Daniels, Greenberg Traurig LLP

Known for his creative approaches to difficult, high-stakes cases, David Long-Daniels is co-chair of the firm's global labor and employment practice, co-chair of the labor and employment practice's complex employment litigation and trials group and chair of the Atlanta labor and employment practice.

William W. Oxley, Dechert LLP

William W. Oxley is a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers who has tried many cases to verdict across the country, including products liability, contract, business tort and IP cases. He represents prominent companies in the pharmaceutical, chemical, entertainment, transportation and other industries.

Hildy Sastre, Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP

Hildy Sastre is a nationally recognized trial lawyer who has tried high-stakes cases for product manufacturers throughout the U.S. She has obtained numerous defense verdicts in cases where tens to hundreds of millions of dollars were at stake. She is often called upon to act as trial counsel in bellwether cases and cases of first impression.

David A. Super, Bracewell LLP

David Super heads the civil litigation practice in Bracewell's Washington, D.C., office. He has decades of first-chair trial experience across multiple industries, handling complex commercial litigation in courts throughout the country. His experience includes legal matters relating to environmental claims, complex commercial disputes, arbitration matters and financial institutions.

--Editing by Alyssa Miller.